

Last Will and Testament of Robert Bolling

'I have enfeoffed Edward Goldsborough, one of the barons of our Lord the Kyng, of his escheaur; Ed. Redmanye, one of the esquiers of his body; Ed. Cresacre, parson, of Arksey; and James Bolling, my son, in the manors of Bolling, Thornton, and Denholme, and of all the halfendole of my manor of Haynesworth--to myself for my life. In suffrance, Isabel, my wyfe, to have all the yerely issue of the halfendole of the landes at Mikill Bolling, and to have her dower of Haynesworth. I do order a gyft to Jamys, William, Umfre, Raynbron, and Troilus Bolling, my sons of 40s., by the yere out of thornnton, Hethlee, and Sowden; after their decease to remayne to Trystram Bolling, my son and heir, and the heires males of his bodie.'